

'Sing Me a Song' - A Concert of Choral Music by Capriccio

Capriccio is a small group of experienced singers dedicated to using their musical talents to raise funds for worthy causes.

The group was born in October 2013 when their founder, Janice McGonigle, invited a few of her singing friends to join her in performing a selection of choral items as guests of the Manchester Recorder Group (MRO) in their annual Charity Concert.

Janice chose the name 'Capriccio' as this encapsulates the nature of the group – 'free in form and lively in nature'!

After that very successful initial performance, the group has grown from 6 to 16 singers and has gained a conductor, David Walsh, a fine musician who also conducts the Manchester Recorder Orchestra.

The next Concert, Sing me a Song, takes place at the Church of St.Oswald, Bollington Cross, on Saturday 21st March at 7.30 pm. They will perform a wide variety of choral music ranging from medieval to modern popular songs. As well as conducting the choir, David Walsh will play the recorder with guests, the X-tet Recorder Group.

The proceeds of this Concert will go to support the work of The ALEX Project at Bollington Health & Leisure.

The ALEX Project (Activities, Leisure & Exercise) gives people with Parkinson's disease the opportunity to take part in weekly exercise and remedial massage in a relaxed and welcoming environment. It also provides support for their carers.

The Project is an offshoot of the Macclesfield Parkinson's Support Group, is run by volunteers and is entirely self-funding.

Tickets for the Concert are available from 01625 829805, 07712 728876 or on the door.

If you are the organiser of a local charity and would like to engage Capriccio for a Charity Event, they would be delighted to hear from you on either of the above numbers. Alternatively, email cherry@tmsservices.co.uk.
